

CALL for IAG/AIG GRANTS for the
International Symposium on Geosite Management
Savoie – Mont-Blanc, France, 5-10 September 2011

The International Association of Geomorphologists (IAG/AIG) offers 3 grants of 300 (three hundred) Euros each to YOUNG GEOMORPHOLOGISTS (under 35 yrs old) from EUROPE (except France) who are willing to take part in the International Symposium on Geosite Management (Savoie – Mont-Blanc, France, 5-10 September 2011).

The Symposium aims at providing a state-of-the-art view of recent research in the field of geosite management, especially considered within the proactive framework of sustainable management applied to protected areas.

The Symposium will provide the opportunity to explore how new information technologies can impact geosites and their management. An Intensive Course will be dedicated to this topic as the first event of the Symposium, followed by an International Conference – second event of the Symposium –, which will include a special session on this topic.

For further information on the Course, please visit the Symposium website:

<http://edytem.univ-savoie.fr/ISGM2011>

Applicants for IAG grants should have a special interest and research experience in the field of Geomorphosites, to be proved by their CV.

Candidates for GRANTS are requested to submit the following documents before 15 APRIL 2011:

- Application form (see below)
- One page CV, including up to 5 papers preferably related to the themes of the Symposium
- Abstract submitted (or to be submitted) to the Symposium.

Documents should be submitted, preferably via e-mail, to the IAG/AIG Training Officer:

Mauro Soldati <soldati@unimore.it>
Dipartimento di Scienze della Terra
Università di Modena e Reggio Emilia
Largo S. Eufemia 19
41121 Modena, Italy

The selection of candidates will be carried out by a Commission appointed by the IAG/AIG Executive Committee. For further information on the IAG/AIG Grants, feel free to contact soldati@unimore.it.

Looking forward to receiving many requests!

Mauro Soldati
IAG/AIG Training Officer
